Clain-Stefanelli 15025*. Still the standard reference. In the preface Frederic H. Betts wrote: "The accompanying descriptions of Medals illustrating American Colonial History, were compiled by my brother, C. WYLLYS BETTS, of New York, whose death in 1887, in the early maturity of an active and useful life, put an end to labors in more than one line of interesting research. So much, however, remained to be done when my brother's papers devolved upon me, that I could scarcely have ventured to assemble and present their contents, had it not been for the generous interest manifested by Mr. Lyman H. Low, of New York, and Mr. William T. R. Marvin, of Boston. To their exhaustive knowledge, their scholarly views as to the proper interpretation of designs and inscriptions, and careful revision of the work, is alone due the completeness and accuracy of presentation..."

Rooks' 1891 work places him in Minneapolis; Charles Cowell was situated in Denver, the next major collection (1912) was that of P. H. Griffith, who hailed from Los Angeles and a year later, Mehl sold important duplicates on behalf of Oshkosh numismatist (junior) H. O. Granberg. The preface to the Rooks sale sheds light on this phenomenon: "I am now situated geographically that my entire business has been established and conducted almost entirely through correspondence, in the course of which I acquired many pleasant and valuable correspondents, with whom the exchange of letters has furnished me unbounded pleasure and instruction, and brought about more intimate friendship along Numismatic lines. One of the first of these valuable correspondents whose friendship I had the good fortune to acquire was Prof. Byron N. Rooks, whose elegant collection I now offer."

Lester Merkin's Plated Bushnell Sale

802 Chapman, S. H. & H. CATALOGUE OF THE CELEBRATED AND VALUABLE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN COINS AND MEDALS OF THE LATE CHARLES L. BUSHNELL ESQ., OF NEW YORK. Latter red cloth, gilt, most plates a trifle foxed. Fine. (12,000.00)

Ex June 1982 Lester Merkin, ex June 15, 1964 Kolbe/Mohr sale, lot 254. (from Bushnell, 1914). The Bushnell collection was a landmark for its original owner, Washington, D.C. based American numismatist and collector who had acquired the most serious collection of research and integrity, identification is unsurpassed. Of the five hundred copies of the catalogue printed, one hundred were supposedly issued with plates. Judging from their frequency of appearance, the market is a probable that considerably fewer were actually distributed. Five of the plates depict colonial coins, along with early patterns, three American medals, one large Washington portrait, one illustrates rare United States gold and silver coins and two feature coins in their origin. The Bushnell sale established the Chapman brothers as the dominant force in organized American numismatics, a position they were to occupy until their deaths and independently for the following several decades. The project of acquisition is well told by Edward Bushnell in the March, 1982 issue of Numismatist. "The first Charles Bushnell, Phil., of New York, late in the time of his death, owned perhaps one of the largest, best sorted and valuable collection of American coin. He had very much taste and perseverance in acquiring when sales were low and prices cheap. To these he added, thru the Marklee sale, a number of rare coins, notably

A Fine Plated Earle Sale

814 Chapman, Henry. CATALOGUE OF THE MAGNIFICENT COLLECTION OF ANCIENT GREEK AND ROMAN, EUROPEAN, ORIENTAL, EARLY AMERICAN AND UNITED STATES COINS OF GEORGE H. EARLE, JR., ESQ., PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia: Messrs. Davis & Harvey, Auctioneers, June 25-29, 1912. v. (3), 225, (3), (12) pages, 3875 lots, 39 very fine photographic plates, handprinted in red ink, prices realized list bound in. Quarto: 31 x 26 cm. contemporary green half morocco, gilt, extremities a trifle worn, spine somewhat faded. Fine. (1,250.00) Ex December 12, 1982 Kolbe/Spink sale, lot 128. Clam-Stettinelli 18177*. Adams, I+. "One of the great collections: balanced strength in ancients, European and U. S. rarities and high condition." The Earle sale brought $55,821.63, a record at the time. While not as extensive as the Jenks collection, coin for coin it is probably superior. The ancient, European and American sections are particularly remarkable, for rarity and condition alike. In the preface, Henry Chapman termed it "the finest collection ever offered in this country." George Howard Earle, Jr. (1856-1928) spent his entire life in Philadelphia, achieving prominence as a financier. His obituary in The Numinatist noted that "He was an ardent collector and always sought the finest specimens possible to obtain." Plates I-V depict classic ancient Greek coins of fine style, plates VI-IX illustrate choice Roman and Byzantine portrait coins, plates X-XXVIII depict European rarities; plate XIX illustrates orders and decorations, plates XX-XXIV depict an astounding array of American colonial, state coins, and Washingtonia; plate XXV illustrates a remarkable panoply of rare American patterns; plates XXVI-XXVIII depict superb United States gold coins, plates XXIX-XXXIII illustrate the superb series of American silver coins, plates XXXIV-XXXVII depict outstanding large cents; plate XXXVIII illustrates choice half cents; and, finally, plate XXXIX depicts slugs and other pioneer gold rarities. A nice, tall copy of this landmark sale, renowned both in the fields of ancient and American numismatics.

RR cents: C-14, S-55, S-57, VI Jefferson Head Cent 1809, MS 1823, Proof 1830." One of the truly memorable Chapman sales of United States large cents. Six of the unusually fine, crisp, well-exposed plates depict coppers, which, Chapman averred, "will make the plate a thing of most valuable and important use to the collector of cents." The assortment was summarized by Chapman as comprising "a splendid illustration of coins in many in extraordinary condition and with a great series of Cent 1801-1830 including a new reverse die and two varieties unknown to Hays and a new combination unpublished; uncirculated specimens of 1795-1796, 1797, 1798, an excellent 1799, uncirculated specimens of 1800, 2 v., 1809, 1830, 1831, 1832, 1833, etc." Of the remaining three plates, one illustrates rare American gold coins, and the other two depict United States silver dollars, mainly patterns, along with a few rare Massachusetts colonial silver coins.

the A. N. A. chair, and secured its passage in Congress. In his July 1962 Nomismatist article "The A. N. A. and Its Presidents," Historian Jack W. Ogilvie, observed that Granberg's "collection specialties were coins in general and during his lifetime he possessed one of the most outstanding collections in America." In 1913, B. Max Mehl sold important selections from his collection, including 1884 & 1885 trade dollars and the Elder 1801 dollar, followed two years later by this remarkable offering. Additional Granberg coins were sold in two 1919 Mehl sales, and Pete Smith observes in American Numismatic Biographies that "the remainder of his collection was sold piecemeal to Woodin, Raymond and others." This shotgun method of dispersal has deprived Granberg of much acclaim, though those fortunate enough to peruse an illustrated example of this 1915 catalogue can scarcely disagree with Ogilvie's assessment of his numismatic prowess.

957 Dickeson, Montroville Wilson. THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC MANUAL OF THE CURRENCY OR MONEY OF THE ABORIGINES, AND COLONIAL, STATE, AND UNITED STATES COINS. WITH HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE NOTICES OF EACH COIN OR SERIES. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co., 1865. Third Edition. 271, (1) pages, fine portrait of the author, frontispiece of the Libertas Americana medal, text illustrations, 20 attractive lithographic plates of coins and currency printed in colors and metallic tints. Quarto: 29.5 x 23.5 cm. Original blindstamped brown cloth, gilt, with gilt impressions of the 1849 twenty dollar gold coin on the upper cover and publisher's imprint at base of spine, neatly rebacked with the original spine laid-on, corners strengthened. A sound, generally fine example. (250.00)

inscribed in ink in a contemporary hand on second flyleaf: "Alfonsus Warland, Cambridge, Mass." The last and best edition. The first work covering the entire range of American numismatics. Dickinson was by nature a popular and showman. He toured the country for several years in the early 1850s lecturing on North American archeology and excavating Indian mounds. His lecture was enhanced by a painting, 38 feet long and over seven feet high entitled Monumental Grandeur of the Mississippi Valley. It was meant to be rolled up on two poles, then unrolled like a film strip to reveal various historical and archeological scenes pertinent to the lecture. His Synonymata vel Manual (the al was dropped after the first edition), while not so spectacular, was clearly intended to reach a mass market. Handsome in format and visual presentation, it was distributed by a major publisher of the day and written in an authoritative manner. Dickinson even envisaged, "if it should be approved, to prepare an edition for the use of schools." Until the appearance of Breen's magnum opus in 1988, it remained the only comprehensive work on American numismatics ever published.

comes to enjoying the ubiquitous fraternity." Referring to Pinkney, Destrée, Elbert and McGuffee, "Historical Coin Collectors" all say: "The editor makes no distinction between the thief and the man who will not pay his honest debts, both should be serving time in state's prison." In the June/July 1906 issue, Elder republishes a letter from "A Reader," headed: "Where is Geoffrey," and reading in part, "Have any of your readers seen or heard of Geoffrey 'Charlatan,' number R. N. S., etc., etc., etc.?" He who formerly held a "suite" in the famous "Scraper." Elder could also be eloquent in praise of those he considered beneficial to the hobby. Of J. N. T. Levick, he wrote in the May, 1906 issue: "If the question ever arises as to who is the youngest coin collector in this country, we would beg to be consulted, as we think a thorough canvass of the field will result in a unanimous vote for our friend J. N. T. Levick, of this city. As with the smiling maiden, the question of age is to Mr. Levick a sensitive subject, but it was some time in 1852 that he began to get the interesting little discs together. Known from the early days of his collecting as a numismatist of prominence, he afterwards came into possession of a collection of cards and tokens numbering fully 20,000 specimens—the largest assemblage extant. By hard squeezing Mr. Woodward managed to squeeze the collection into about 5,000 lots and sold them over twenty years ago. An important point which we wish to make is that numismatists can hold a man in his later years—yes, can entice him with the fire of the raw recruit. Mr. Levick may be found at any table, minutely examining the pieces, marking careful pencil notations in his catalogue, biding whenever anything surting his taste is offered, and pricing his catalogue with the precision of clockwork. We doff our hats to J. N. T. Levick, the youngest coin collector in America."

A complete run of the best-selling numismatic book of all time, written by Richard S. Yeoman, whose pen name is more than a little appropriate. This remarkable work has surely been Yeoman's service to American numismatics. Even nowadays, when the valuations are obsolete before publication, it remains a bestseller. Familiarity, ease of use, and innumerable facts (terribly useful ones) and snippets are among its many desirable attributes. For a number of years it has been an avidly sought-after collectible in its own right. A nice set overall, featuring two editions inscribed by the author the evening of April 28, 1991. The twelve articles all captured in a color photograph reproduced in the catalogue, were Walter Breen (resplendent in tuxedo), Jim Goudge, Robert Martin, Don Miruzas, Rob Rerz, Tom Rinaldo, Mike Ringo, Jeff Rock, Ed Sarafian, Dr. Michael Spencer, Steve Tannenbaum, and Dave Townsend. According to a Willamette Coin Club bulletin present here, also accompanied by a note to Tom Rinaldo from Rob Rerz, "Rob wanted to make 15 auction catalogs," so Jim Trethewey produced "17 copies of everything 12 extras in case of mistakes, which did happen," and Rob "took them to a book binding shop, who stretched the pages inside luxurious covers with gold leaf lettering." Cleverly composed, anyone reading the catalogue will themselves soon be in stitches. The fourteen terms of sale are all amusing; number 10, for example, states that the "losing party in any dispute arising as a result of this sale will be subject to arbitrary binding — unless he likes it." The coins were catalogued by Walter Breen and Jeff Rock, with each lot description written in their hands in black and blue ink on a small Howard Johnson note slip (the original one present here is for lot #22; the others are reproduced, some in reduced format, in the catalogue). Enlarged illustrations of some of the coins are also present in the catalogue. There were no great rarities here; lot 17 brought the highest price of $310, and lot 21 brought only $25. The commentators, however, is priceless. After lot 1, it is noted that "This coin has been submitted numerous times to Breen's Braille Grading Service." Lot 3: "There is no truth to the rumor that a young Bob Vlack posed for this coin, and we really wish collectors would stop referring to it as the 'Vlack Head' variety. Lot 9: "Nored collector William Anton, Jr. observes that a specimen of this variety in his collection is double-struck, off-center and clipped, over a New Jersey copper (Mars 69-W) partial brockage cap, itself struck over a counter-stamped Low-145 Hard Times token, proving that the Elizabethtown mint operated well into the 1830's. Or, it could be a piece of charcoal." Lot 16: "This is a hitherto unknown specimen of an extremely common variety." A bad sheet, bound in following the descriptions notes that "A 10% buyer's premium will be added to all lots, successful or not."

Deluxe Leatherbound 1913 Star Coin Encyclopedia?

1481 Mehl, (Benjamin) Max. THE STAR COIN ENCYCLOPEDIA. EIGHTH EDITION. CONTAINING COMPLETE LISTS OF ANCIENT, MEDIAEVAL AND MODERN COINS OF THE ENTIRE WORLD... Fort Worth: Compiled and Published by The Numismatic Bank of Texas. B. Max Mehl, Manager, 1913, 206, (2) pages, illustrated. 18.5 x 13.5 cm. Contemporary (original?) black leather-grained quarter morocco with open-grained black leather sides, rounded corners, Coin Book decoratively impressed on upper cover in gilt (almost entirely oxidized), green floral-patterned endsheets, extremities a bit worn but binding sound, internally fine. (250.00)

Apparently a specially bound early edition commissioned by Mehl. The original edition appears to have been distributed shortly after Mehl's return from New York City in 1912, where his proposed partnership with Wayne Raymond had failed to reach fruition. Perhaps Mehl took a few early copies at the eighth edition of the Encyclopedia with him, or, having met Wayne Raymond's Index sent them to be bound after his return. The patterned endsheets present in this copy are virtually identical to those favored by Raymond at the time (also as found in some hardbound copies of Adams & Wadwin's 1913 work on patterns) and the deluxe edition of the 1913 Adams work on California gold. The endpapers, decorative lettering, and the very outlay of a fair amount of flash in gold at head seemingly not otherwise worth it, argue for official status, either for presentation purposes or as a personal memento of the author. The circumstances noted certainly seem to point in that direction and, should this turn out to be an Mehl-sanctioned binding, the estimate is surely too low. If not, the eighth edition appears to be quite scarce, and the volume at hand should be worth a fair amount of the estimate based on that factor alone.
